

DEADLINE EXTENDED!

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

NEW Submission Deadline: Sept. 14, 2026

APACHE EMBER — A LITERARY JOURNAL —

Apache Ember invites submissions of original, unpublished poetry, short fiction, creative nonfiction, visual art, and hybrid/experimental work from creators whose work reflects Indigenous perspectives. Our journal seeks voices that honor ancestral memory, cultural resilience, and the many ways in which stories are carried through land, language, and community.

As the creative, literary home for San Carlos Apache College, Apache Ember's vision and mission seeks to amplify Apache and other Indigenous voices while welcoming writers and artists from all backgrounds and experiences. Whether your work is deeply personal, lyrical, speculative, or traditionally grounded, your voice matters.

Submissions received by the deadline will be considered for Apache Ember Vol. 2, No. 1, set to be published Spring 2027.

Find out more at www.apacheember.com or scan the QR Code:

Questions? Email apacheember@apachecollege.org

Apache Ember is an emerging literary journal published by Apache College Press under the care of The Apache Institute at San Carlos Apache College.

APACHE  EMBER

 Apache College Press